Saturday night to be on Standard
Time Sunday morning.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

The selectmen voted at the last board meeting (Oct. 13) to contract with the Dubois ambulance service in Mexico for service from Jan. 1 to March 31, 1970. A decision had to be made in order that it could be placed in the new phone directories being printed. We were too late to have the number printed in bold type but were able to have it listed under the Bethel numbers.

There will be a crew in town the week of Oct. 27 doing boring along the proposed locations of new sewer lines. The men and equipment will be on private land part of the time. We have attempted to contact all property owners but there may be instances where they will be on property not planned as the finding of ledge may force them to try surrounding areas.

CIVIL DEFENSE MEETING AT SOUTH PARIS NEXT WEDNESDAY

William A. Bartlett, Oxford County Director of Civil Defense and Public Safety, has announced that there will be a meeting of all Civil Defense personnel next Wednesday evening, Oct. 29, at 7:30 in the county office at South Paris. Normand Vermette, Androscoggin County Director, will speak on Civil Defense with special emphasis on the problems of the "small-town director".

This is a public meeting. Mr. Bartlett stated, and notices have been sent to local groups and veterans' organizations.

Mr. Bartlett went on to say in his announcement, "I'm sure I do not need to inform you of Mr. Vermette's accomplishments and ability and I know you feel as I do that we are most fortunate to have him attend this meeting."

RETIRED BAPTIST MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT OCTOBER MEETING OF RETIRED TEACHERS

Dr. Marlin Farnum, a retired Baptist missionary, will be the speaker at the October meeting of the Oxford County Retired Teachers Association on Saturday, Oct. 25, at the First Congregational Church in South Paris. His subject will be "Missionary Life in Japan."

Dr. Farnum, a native of Medford, Mass., a graduate of Colby College in 1923, and Andover Newton Theological Seminary in 1927, worked in Japan from 1927-1941 for the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society. As secretary of the Baptist Mission in Tokyo, Japan and the Indian Sea he worked with people of rural areas. After returning to the United States he served on the American Baptist Missionary Board as personnel and administrative secretary responsible for work in India, the Congo, and Europe. From 1961-66 he was director of the Overseas Division related to the total overseas program. At present he and Mrs. Farnum are residents of Buckfield.

The regular social hour and business session are at 10:30 followed by a luncheon served by the church women at 12:30.

BANKS AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO BE CLOSED MONDAY, OCT. 27

District 44 schools will be closed on Monday, Oct. 27, in observance of Veterans Day. Bethel Savings Bank and the Casco Bank and Trust Company will observe the holiday, with at least two of the local stores also being closed.

Passage of the Monday-holiday law by the recent Maine legislature designates the fourth Monday in October as Veterans Day.

Post Offices and other federal agencies will be open Oct. 27, and will observe the traditional date of Nov. 11 as Veterans Day. The federal Monday-holiday law is not effective until January of 1971.

MAINE STATE CHAMBER URGES APPROVAL OF QUESTION NO. 8 ON NOV. 4th BALLOT

Pollution clean-up in Maine needs support at the polls Nov. 4th according to the Maine State Chamber of Commerce.

Paul C. Emerson, executive vice president of the State Chamber has stated that the Chamber supports passage of the $50 million bond issue providing for planning, construction and equipment of pollution abatement facilities.

"There will be no real clean-up program without the money provided by approval of question No. 8 on the referendum ballot," Emerson said. "This is the largest single bond issue ever proposed in the State of Maine," he added, "but there is a big job to do and this money will provide matching funds for communities and allow us to anticipate federal support."

"Considering a total estimated pollution control program cost of over $300 million," Emerson said, "puts the bond issue into proper perspective in relation to the job to be done. The state has some funds available from an earlier bond issue, but this money won't go beyond next year and our present rate of progress will take nearly 100 years to accomplish an effective program unless positive action is taken on the pending bond issue."

HARVEST MOON BALL AT RUMFORD ARMY SATURDAY

A gala Harvest Moon Ball, for the benefit of Rumford Community Hospital, will be held Saturday, November 1, 1969, 8:30 p. m. to 12 a. m. at the Rumford Armory. Al Corey's orchestra will provide the music for dancing.

Advance table reservations are required and the admission price will include light refreshments and coffee served buffet style late in the evening, and door prizes, which will be drawn at intermission. Dress is optional.

Tickets are available in Rumford at Bartash Stationery Store; Dixfield, Howard's Dry Goods Store; Bethel, Emma's Beauty Salon; also at the hospital business office. Many advance reservations have already been made and due to the limited capacity of the hall, it is suggested that your reservation be made as early as possible.

All proceeds from the ball will be used to benefit the hospital, thereby benefitting the entire community.

DIRECTORS OF S. A. D. 44 APPROVE TEACHER AND MATRON MONDAY EVENING

The board of directors of S. A. D. 44 held their regular meeting at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

The board approved the nomination by the superintendent, Ralph K. Ryder, of George Stebbins to teach English at Telstar for the remainder of this school year. Mr. Stebbins fills the staff vacancy created by the entry of Frank Keegan into the military service for three years. A math instructor, Mr. Keegan's position has been filled by Mrs. Pauline Applin who has been teaching in the English department but requested a transfer to mathematics because her major was in that area. When James Fiske was hired, it had been the intent to transfer him to the math department to fill Mr. Keegan's position. Since that time Mr. Fiske has requested to remain in the English department. This was approved by both the English and math department heads and Principal Keith Cunningham.

Also approved was Mrs. Pauline B. Croteau of Bryant Pond to serve as matron at Telstar for the remainder of the current school year.

Milton Mills, building committee chairman, gave a brief report for his committee. He particularly emphasized the boiler situation at Telstar, as they still do not function efficiently when both are required to operate simultaneously. The architects are to have a firm investigate and make recommendations to correct the problem sometime in November. It is estimated that the installation of an induced draft system would incur a net cost to the District of some $3,700.

A committee consisting of John Ricker of Andover; Don Stecher, Bethel; Malcolm Packard, Greenwood; Robert Davis, Newry; and Milton Mills of Woodstock, was appointed to recommend a name for the athletic field at Telstar. Chris Angevine of Bethel was present at the meeting and stated that he would like to see the field named in honor of James Bartlett of Bethel, who lost his life in the Vietnam conflict. Some of the directors were of the opinion that a name such as "Memorial Field" might be more appropriate and other avenues pursued to honor particular individuals.

Roger Spugnardi, administrative assistant, reported for the elementary education committee, and discussed what this group was doing. Some of the directors commented that they would prefer more emphasis in the area of elementary curriculum, with the physical aspects of school plants left with the building committee.

The board accepted the low bid of the Home Gas Corporation, Bethel Oil Co., local distributor, to supply liquid propane gas. The cost will be $.175 per gallon to Telstar, and $.175 per gallon to Andover Elementary School. The firm will supply at a cost of $305, a 500 gallon L. P. gas storage tank with necessary regulating equipment at the Andover school.

The low bid of Goodspeed Oil Co.,

IS LOCAL AMBULANCE SERVICE TO BE CONTINUED?

Sunday Night Meeting at Fire
Station to Air Problem Known
Since Annual Town Meeting

The question of ambulance service for Bethel and the surrounding area has been the focal point of concern to many residents recently. A lack of understanding of the problems involved has prompted many to seek information and possible solutions.

A group of interested citizens met with the local department of Civil Defense and Public Safety Monday evening to see what could be done in the way of volunteer personnel to maintain an ambulance service within the town rather than depend on an ambulance that must come 25 to 30 miles.

The possible solution as presented by Eldon Greenleaf of the local ambulance service would be a volunteer call service of trained drivers and attendants to assist Mr. Greenleaf on ambulance calls, easing the situation created by present laws which require two trained attendants on a 24 hour basis. Wage law requirements are such that hiring full time personnel would be prohibitive because of cost, and an emergency rescue unit is not approved by Medicare.

Mr. Greenleaf would be willing to continue his ambulance service as it is now until town meeting in March if enough interest and cooperation is shown NOW by citizens of the area. The additional three months (January, February, March) would allow time to set up the new system which would be presented at town meeting.

All those willing to participate in this project (the minimum age limit for this work is 17 years) are urged to attend a meeting at the Bethel Fire Station next Sunday evening, Oct. 26, at 7:30. Further details of the program, including the training of personnel will be presented at that time. Training classes would be held in Bethel.

HEALTH COUNCIL NEEDS CHILDREN'S WINTER CLOTHES

The Health Council is in urgent need of winter clothing for children. Several requests have been received for coats, mittens, caps and jackets. Will anyone having articles to donate, please leave them at the Dana Douglass barn.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON

A snowfall of three inches, more or less, arrived on Wednesday, Oct. 22. The season's first storm caused hazardous driving conditions in some areas especially on bridges, etc.

Norway, to supply regular gasoline at a net cost per gallon of $.229 was accepted.

The board went into executive session to discuss the salary negotiations process going on with the teachers.

All board members were present with the exception of Eddie Snyder and Roderick Sidelinger, both of Andover.

The next regular meeting will be held at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening, Nov. 3, at 7:30.

To quote Roger, "The President is truly a great man as is his cabinet that works with him. I wish the people of the U. S. only knew how hard this man works and what responsibilities this position holds. It's not all glory and sparkle as many people think. I can say without a word of doubt that he carries the biggest burden and the hardest job there is in the U. S."

Belonging to God
St. Paul wrote "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself." God became a man in the person of Jesus that the world might be reclaimed for Him. The world rightfully belongs to Him and even the realms of politics, social life and of the work-a-day world are rightfully His, and should be instrumental to the accomplishment of His will. In particular, those who are adrift, without a purpose, and without a knowledge of who they are, are rightfully His. God was in Jesus while He died on the cross that you might know Him, as your loving heavenly Father. By simple faith in Jesus you can enter into the relationship to God in which you know Him as Loving Father. — by Frederick Bailey, pastor of the Bethel United Methodist Church.

MT. ABRAM FISH & GAME ASSN.
HELD MEETING OCT. 16

The Mt. Abram Fish and Game Association met at the Locke Mills Town Hall, Oct. 16. It was reported that the dam at Bryant Pond has been widened and repaired and the fish in the pond killed. Smelt, white perch, bass and some pickerel were picked up to eat as well as one large eel. A few trout were saved but very large suckers were picked up by the barrel and hauled away.

It was voted at the meeting to follow the Maine Fish and Game Clubs and support the bond issue for $50,000,000 for pollution control as recommended by the state legislature. A film on conservation was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Carter were in Wolfeboro, N. H., for the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vaughan and family.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Murry (Johnnie) Cummings and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keoskie for a week before leaving for Sacramento, Calif., last Thursday. They had been stationed at Topsham Air Force Station for eight years.

BOSTON MUSEUM HOSTS
TELSTAR SCIENCE STUDENTS

Last Friday, Oct. 17, Lawrence Arsenault, chairman of the Telstar Science Department, a group of Telstar students, selected for the high measure of their performance in their science programs, went to the Museum of Science in Boston, where they were guests of the Fifth Annual Science Frontiers Lecture Series.

This lecture series, which is sponsored by the Damon Foundation, is designed to enable selected students to hear renowned scientists tell about their varied careers, and to gain an insight into new scientific knowledge and theory at a level seldom available to their age group.

Friday's speaker was Dr. Ross A. McFarland, Guggenheim Professor of Aerospace Health and Safety of the Harvard School of Public Health, his subject being "Man, Medicine, and Space". A much honored pioneer in aerospace physiology, Dr. McFarland has served as a technical advisor to many government agencies, and recently participated in a research project with NASA on the environmental systems for astronauts in the Apollo mission. He has specialized in experimental psychology, human factors engineering, and aerospace medicine since he graduated from the University of Michigan in 1923 and received his Ph.D. at Harvard in 1929. Dr. McFarland and his colleagues at the Harvard School of Public Health have indoctrinated more than 150 flight surgeons with the most recent knowledge in aerospace health and safety.

At additional lectures, which will follow throughout the school year, it is hoped that other students from grades 7-12 will be able to attend. Dates and speakers at subsequent lectures are as follows:

Nov. 14, Dr. Arthur Kantrowitz, vice president, Director of Avera Corp. and Director, Avera Everett

Research Laboratory, "Fluid Mechanics in Physics and Medicine"; Feb. 13, Prof. Donald H. Menzel, Paine Professor of Practical Astronomy and Professor of Astrophysics, Harvard University, "Our Sun"; March 13, Dr. Charles Stark Draper, Institute Professor and Director of the Instrumentation Laboratory, M. I. T., "Guidance to the Stars"; April 10, Dr. Jean Mayer, Professor of Nutrition, Lecturer on the History of Public Health, and Member of the Center for Population Centers, Harvard University, "Nutrition and the Future".

Telstar students making the trip were: Ross Swain, freshman, Andover; John Gauthier, sophomore, Newry; Jeffrey Twitchell, junior, Bryant Pond; and Judith Angevine, senior, Bethel. David Arsenault also accompanied his father and the group to Boston.

The following account of the trip was written by Judy Angevine and Jeff Twitchell: "Mr. Arsenault, David Arsenault, John Gauthier, Judy Angevine, Ross Swain, and Jeff Twitchell left school last Friday morning for Boston. There they visited the Harvard Museum. The glass flowers were found to be the main interest of the group. The visit there lasted only about an hour because they had to move on to the Museum of Science. The Museum of Science was their main goal as they were guests to the lecture on Man, Space, and Medicine. After the lecture they were able to browse through the museum. The trip was enjoyed by all, but everyone wished that there had been more time to study the exhibits. They all arrived back at school around 11 that night."

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

As some rare perfume in a vase of clay
Pervades it with an odor not its own,
So when Christ dwelleth in a mortal soul
All heaven's own sweetness seems round it thrown. (Author Unknown)

Proverbs 16: 22 and 24: "The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips."

"Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones."

CHRISTMAS TREE SHIPPERS
REMINDED OF INSPECTION

As this year's toll of gypsy moth damage mounted to 264,000 acres of northeastern woodland defoliated, the United States Department of Agriculture recently warned shippers not to help spread the destructive pest into new areas in shipments of Christmas trees and other holiday greenery.

Female gypsy moths attach their egg clusters to trees, shrubs, logs, fallen branches, and rocks, and the eggs can remain unseen for long periods. If inadvertently transported outside the quarantined area on Christmas greenery, a single egg mass, containing from 100 to 1,000 potential gypsy moths, could begin a new infestation, explains G. G. Rohwer, chief of quarantine operations, Plant Pest Control Division of USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

Federal and State quarantines require that Christmas greenery be inspected and certified "pest free" before being shipped from infested areas. At present, the entire States of Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island and most of New Hampshire and Vermont are regulated under the gypsy moth quarantine. Parts of Maine, New Jersey,

New York and Pennsylvania are also regulated.

Dealers will experience little or no delay in getting trees and other greenery inspected and certified at loading points, Mr. Rohwer says. Details about quarantine regulations and inspection schedules at loading points are available from Federal and State plant pest inspectors. These inspectors can be contacted by telephone or through county agricultural agents.

With this year's area of gypsy moth defoliation three times greater than that of last year, plant pest control officials are concerned lest the destructive pests further spread into the Nation's valuable hardwood forests. Gypsy moth caterpillars feed on leaves and are literally capable of stripping whole forests of their foliage overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swain and two children from Chadd's Ford, Pa., called on Mabel Stanley Sunday morning on their way home.

Nancy Brown and Linda Foster of Kennebunk entertained a family gathering on Sunday at Kennebunk. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Blake MacKay and family, Mrs. Abbie Brown and Miss Arlene Brown.

Letters to the Editor

October 21, 1969

Dear Editor,

Several weeks ago a fine citizen of Woodstock was suddenly stricken ill in the early morning hours. After being seen by his family physician, he was rushed by ambulance to a Lewiston hospital. By the time he arrived his body was rigid, he was convulsing, and he had great difficulty breathing, and generally his prognosis was very poor. The diagnosis was TETANUS or "Lockjaw". The man's family could only recall a small cut on a finger a short time previously, as the possible entry for his horrible affliction.

During the next week this man met death face-to-face many times—by the miracles of modern medicine given him in massive doses, a skilled physician, and scientific equipment, this man is now home recuperating. He is one of very few who can claim such a victory over this disease. The fact that he had initial immunization years before for Tetanus probably saved his life.

How many of us keep our Tetanus shots up to date?

I thought this might serve as a good reminder to all of us that Tetanus germs are still around—consequently we must keep our guard up. The same is true of Polio vaccine and Smallpox vaccinations.

We all were very elated when a prevention for these diseases was invented—however we must do our part and keep our immunizations up-to-date.

Why not have your immunization record check soon?

Mrs. Phillip Farrington, R. N.
Bryant Pond, Maine.

Letter to the Editor:

Do the people of District No. 44, who have children in the Bethel schools, really want to do away with P. T. A.? I don't think it is fair to any of these parents who haven't even had a chance to join. There has been no membership drive yet. Any organization has to have people to work with before they can start working. And please, people, if you aren't willing to contribute a little effort somewhere, don't join!

The old trend of a few people doing all the work, all the time, has to be changed. There are many areas to be covered and I'm sure no one has to consider themselves overworked if what members we have will each do a little.

For programming we've tried all sorts of outside interests. Why not try some inside ones. For instance what goes on in the school room; a little more insight on what the duties of our department heads are; and what they are doing for our children; maybe a little on new subject matter; perhaps what is expected in the line of homework. These are just a few things that come to mind. I'm sure there are many areas that would make the meetings meaningful enough so the parent would hate to miss them. In many instances both parents work and they just don't get to visit school. So when they are in contact with school? Probably at Open House during National Education Week. There are usually so many parents there that night that you hardly get a chance to say "hello" to the teacher.

If we could make our P. T. A. into a parent, teacher, child program, I don't think we'd have to worry about attendance or people to do the work. In my opinion the child has been left out.

I'm sure that everyone won't agree with me but if you want to keep the P. T. A. and think you'd like programming of this type, drop me a card, (I work, too). Any other suggestions will be more than welcome.

Respectfully yours,
Gail Scribner

NEW BOOKS AT BETHEL LIBRARY

"In This House of Brede," by Rumer Godden is a novel about an attractive, worldly career woman who enters a Benedictine Monastery. Predicted to be a best seller.

"The House on the Strand," by Daphne D'Maurier concerns a young man's experiments with hallucinogenic drugs and his travels back and forth in time to the mysteries of 14th century England. Gradually growing more involved in the lives and emotions of the early Cornish mansion lords and their ladies he finds his own life pale in comparison and the presence of his American wife and stepsons a hindrance to his new-found existence.

"Trespass," by Fletcher Knebel is both a masterfully told tale of suspense and a carefully observed description of a nation and its leaders in time of crisis. Most important, it is also a chilling yet compassionate portrait of America as it deals with an armed confrontation of black and white.

TELSTAR R. H. S. NEWS ACTIVITIES

Madame Jeanne Thomine-Desmurs, instructor of French at Telstar, attended a recent meeting of the Maine chapter of the AATF (American Association of Teachers of French), held at St. Joseph's High School in Bucksport. The business meeting at the school was followed by a tour of St. Joseph's and then luncheon at a beautiful nearby lake, where the St. Joseph's chorus, conducted by Father Olivier, gave an excellent program of folk songs, both French Canadian and American. Following the lunch, the group enjoyed an open discussion of a French play by Anouilh, presented the day before in Lewiston. The extremely interesting discussion, conducted entirely in French, was headed by French instructors from the University of Maine.

GUIDANCE

The PSAT Tests were given at Telstar on Tuesday morning to one sophomore and 54 juniors. The PSAT is a 2-hour version of the College Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), which many colleges require their applicants to take. Both tests are designed to measure verbal and mathematical ability necessary for academic success in college. The test scores will be returned in December.

Sgt. Reinhardt of the United States Army visited the Guidance Office.

M. C. I. 22-3 VICTOR OVER GOULD IN PARENTS' DAY CONTEST

Maine Central Institute of Pittsfield broke open a tight game in the third period with two touchdowns and went on to defeat host Gould Academy 22-3 in a Parents' Day feature last Saturday.

The only scoring in the first half came in the second period when Pete Brooks of MCI capped a 60-yard drive by scoring from five yards out. The extra point attempt was no good and MCI led, 6-0.

Rick Milligan took a five-yard pass from quarterback Tom Parker to up the score to 12-0 in the third quarter. Rod Blake rushed over for the extra two points to make it 14-0.

Later in the same period, MCI drove 70 yards in 10 plays, with Blake streaking over from the 10. Guy Patterson rushed over for the conversion to give MCI a 22-0 lead.

With four minutes left in the game, Gould drove 70 yards with Dan Vogt playing over from the four. Alex DesRoches ran for the two-point conversion.

MCI is now 22 and Gould 0-3.

MOMENTUM APPARATUS BUILT AT TELSTAR

Mike Davis, a freshman at Telstar, is shown demonstrating a "conservation-of-momentum" apparatus he built this year. The bowling balls were donated by the Bethel Bowling Lanes. The purpose of this device is to show that in nature the quantity called "momentum" is constant and conserved. Momentum of a moving body depends on the mass of the body and its velocity. If one bowling ball collides with six others, only the last ball swings outward. If two balls collide with five, the two end ones swing outward.

The next time you're bowling, try striking one ball from one end and two balls from the other on the return ramp. Predict beforehand what will happen. Did you conserve momentum in your prediction? Physics is fun!

MESSALONKEE HIGH SCALPS TELSTAR 18-6 SATURDAY

MISS EVA M. BEAN

Miss Eva M. Bean died unexpectedly Saturday morning, Oct. 18, 1969, at the Cecil Conrad residence in Bethel.

Born in Bethel, July 11, 1895, she was the daughter of Eugene and Ella Brown Bean. She graduated from Gould Academy, class of 1913, and from Colby College, class of 1917.

She received her R. N. degree from the Presbyterian Hospital, New York, and later went to Paris, France, where she taught nursing. She then returned to Portland as supervisor of nurses at the Maine General Hospital for several years. She later became a private nurse and governess for the J. M. Andrews family, Akron, Ohio, who owned the Quaker Oats Co.

Miss Bean retired from nursing in 1934 because of an arthritis condition. Since then, she became an active historian and writer. She published a book by the name of "East Bethel Road" in 1959. At the time of her death she was at work on another book dealing with the towns of North Oxford County.

Miss Bean was the secretary of the Bethel Historical Society and also served as secretary of the Gould Alumni Association for several years. An alumni revolving fund was established for the graduates of Gould Academy and was named the Eva Bean Revolving Fund in her honor. This fund is still available for Telstar Regional High School graduates. She was very active in restoration of old cemeteries in the Bethel area, and was a member of the West Parish Congregational Church, Bethel.

Surviving are two nephews, Bryant Bean of Houlton, and Francis Bean of Woodstock.

Memorial services were held Tuesday afternoon from the West Parish Congregational Church with Rev. Charles Schleich officiating.

With the passing of this fine woman an intimate part of our village life is gone.

A tenacious link with the early history of our town is broken. Her research of many years revealed all but forgotten facts of pioneer people, related families and old time industries.

Her friends were legion.

Her many acts of kindness and generosity were daily occurrences.

Her wit was keen and never cruel.

Friends valued her good judgment and integrity.

Her colossal courage gave her a transcendence over the torment of constant pain and she was always gay, active and popular.

The memory of her brave and useful life will remain.

We will not mourn. Her suffering is over and her great Spirit is free.

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP TO COLLECT FOR UNICEF

Thursday, Oct. 30, the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church will canvass Bethel village for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, to collect monetary contributions, between the hours of 7 and 8 p. m.

What is the purpose of these contributions? Where does the money go? What is the purpose of UNICEF?

One major function of the U. S. Committee for UNICEF is to foster an understanding of the needs of children in the developing countries and the role of UNICEF in helping to meet the needs.

Our world is shrinking day by day. Because of many scientific advances, we know more about other countries than ever before. We know more about the children of Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East — the world of UNICEF.

The growing countries of these regions can not yet provide for the basic needs of all their children. Many children have serious problems. In UNICEF's world: 4 out of 5 children received no medical care, either to prevent or cure illness; 3 out of every 4 children suffer from malnutrition. Some may get enough to eat, but they do not get the right kinds of food; about half the children do not go to school or must leave before they finish the primary grades.

UNICEF's job is to help countries solve these problems. UNICEF equips schools and clinics. It helps families and communities to learn about nutrition and health. It aids the training of nurses, teachers, and many others who can help children in their own countries. UNICEF's goal is a world of healthy children who have a chance to grow and develop their talents.

When you give to UNICEF, you become part of UNICEF's world by helping other children. Even a small
